

The Good News from Trinity PC August 29, 2022

Trinity Worship Services

Trinity worships on Sunday mornings at 10:15 AM, both onsite in the sanctuary and livestreamed on the Trinity YouTube channel.

We warmly welcome you to join us at Trinity on Sunday morning for our worship service in the sanctuary. For your convenience, hand sanitizer is provided near the entry doors. We understand that you may be more comfortable in an indoor environment while wearing a face mask, so we embrace your personal choice to do so.

This is the last edition of the Good News newsletter. Please see the weekly Communicator for announcements.

For those who choose to participate in our worship service remotely, Trinity offers the service online, livestreaming at 10:15 AM on YouTube, with Trinity announcements and other information shown as a prelude at about 10:10 AM. To watch the video live click on the link below, which will direct you to the Trinity YouTube channel, and then click on the video in the displayed list with the LIVE box illuminated. We encourage you to click the "subscribe" link on this page.

Prepare for Worship 13th Sunday after Pentecost

Luke 14:25-33

“Large crowds were traveling with Jesus, and turning to them he said: If anyone comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters—yes, even their own life—such a person cannot be my disciple. And whoever does not carry their cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Won’t you first sit down and estimate the cost to see if you have enough money to complete it? For if you lay the foundation and are not able to finish it, everyone who sees it will ridicule you, saying, ‘This person began to build and wasn’t able to finish.’ Or suppose a king is about to go to war against another king. Won’t he first sit down and consider whether he is able with ten thousand men to oppose the one coming against him with twenty thousand? If he is not able, he will send a delegation while the other is still a long way off and will ask for terms of peace. In the same way, those of you who do not give up everything you have cannot be my disciples.”

Reflection

How does your experience of the culture prevent you from fully embracing the call to serve with humility? What must you give up to follow Christ more faithfully?

Morning Prayer

God, in the freshness of the new day, help us to retain clarity of vision so that we might seek the honor of your kingdom rather than the honor of the world. Sustain us throughout the day so that we might return filled by the grace of your spirit. Amen.

Note from the pastor

Dear Trinity Family,

As some of you know, our session has made some slight changes to the staff roles here at Trinity. My hope is to clarify these changes. First, we continue to be blessed by Davis and his leadership as music director. His role continues unchanged, and we are so grateful for his presence. Second, Tom will be continuing his ministry at Trinity. Tom will be preaching a couple Sundays less a year, and will be continuing visitation. We are grateful for the wisdom, experience and service Tom has devoted to Trinity over the past ten years. Third, Diane will continue to bring her experience and skill to the Office Administrator role. She will be working fewer hours, and covering the office Tuesday through Thursday. We are grateful for the attention to detail and organization Diane brings. Finally, I will be stepping into a slightly expanded role at Trinity as part-time Head of Staff. I will be preaching a couple Sundays more a year, and I will have regular office hours most afternoons. I am grateful for this opportunity and look forward to seeing what God does in our community. As always, I am happy to answer any questions to help clarify things further. Thank you all for support of the Trinity staff.

Rev. Kate

TRUST POSTER

No matter what you face, God is with you. Make this poster as a reminder to always trust God.

What you need:

- Cardstock
- Glue
- Twigs (a 3" piece and a 2" piece)
- Pebbles
- Black paint
- Paintbrush
- Sand or glitter
- Broken crayons (2 or 3)

What you do:

1. On the left side of the cardstock, trace a 3"-high letter T with glue. Place twigs on the glue lines.
2. Trace an R of the same size. Place pebbles on that glue.
3. Use black paint to make a U.
4. Trace an S in glue. Pour sand (or glitter) on top.
5. Make another T with glue. Place the crayons on top.
6. After the poster dries, shake off the excess sand (or glitter) into a trash can.

Growing Through Gratitude

Thankfulness, studies show, has multiple physical, mental and emotional benefits. Psychologist Robert Emmons calls gratitude “fertilizer for the mind” because of its powerful effects.

He admits gratitude isn’t always easy – especially when life throws us curveballs (see the year 2020) – but says it can be most helpful during and after difficulties. Emmons suggests reframing challenges using thankfulness-based language. Ask, for example: Though I wasn’t grateful for the experience at the time, how can I be now? What lessons did I learn, and how did I grow as a person?

Throughout his letters, the apostle Paul reframes his extensive sufferings and urges us to do the same. “Give thanks in all circumstances,” he writes, “for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus” (1 Thessalonians 5:18, NIV).
