Seniors' Day at the Reds' Ballpark

On Wednesday, June 21, the Fellowship Committee is offering a trip to Seniors' Days at the Cincinnati Reds. Game time is at 12:25 pm. Tickets are approximately $20.00. We will car pool. If you have any questions, contact Connie Williams.

Book Club

The Book Club will meet at noon on Monday, June 26 for a brown bag lunch and discussion. They will continue to discuss Lincoln Highway. The July book is Authenticity Project by Claire Poole. This novel is about an eccentric, lonely artist and septuagenarian who believes that most people aren't really honest with one another. But what if they were? And so he writes—in a plain, green journal—the truth about his own life and leaves it in his local cafe.

Pastor Kate Out of Town

Pastor Kate will be out of town for her D.Min class at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary June 19-June 23 and will NOT be reachable by phone. She will try to respond to emails but no guarantees.

Fourth Sunday Gathering—June 25

Please mark your calendars to bring appetizers for fellowship on the Fourth Sunday of each month. Session committees will also meet during that time, and everyone is welcome to participate. The next gathering is on June 25 after worship.

Help us Locate Choir Room Key

We are trying to locate the choir room key that is usually on a hook in the workroom. If you know where the key is, please return it to the workroom. Thanks!

Summer Renewal

The best remedy for those who are afraid, lonely or unhappy is to go outside, somewhere where they can be quite alone with the heavens, nature and God. Because only then does one feel that all is as it should be and that God wishes to see people happy, amidst the simple beauty of nature. As long as this exists, and it certainly always will, I know that then there will always be comfort for every sorrow, whatever the circumstances may be. And I firmly believe that nature brings solace in all troubles. —Anne Frank, Diary of a Young Girl
