

LIGHTING OF INDIVIDUAL CANDLES

Flame from the Christ Candle will be brought to the candles of people on the center aisle. As you receive the light, please pass it to your neighbor until all have received the light, symbolizing the light that we received from Christ and carry into the world. At the end of the charge and blessing, please extinguish your candle and return candle and holder to the baskets as you leave.

CAROL #122

Silent Night, Holy Night!

*CHARGE AND BLESSING

Pastor: Alleluia

People: Amen.

*POSTLUDE

*God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen; English carol arr. James Rae
Brandon Reese, saxophone*

Choir Director	Davis McKinney
Pastor	Rev. Tom Dunlap

Bolded words are read by the congregation.

Welcome: to all who worship with us this evening, especially our visitors! If you have a joy or concern that you would like to share with the congregation, please use the yellow card in the pew pocket and place it in the offering plate. These will be shared with the congregation during our “Joys and Concerns.” Please fill out the worship registration pad found in the pew, and pass it to the person next to you. Once the form is completed the last person to receive the form places the form in the offering plate.

We hope you feel at home at Trinity, and that you will join us again. We invite you to consider becoming part of our church family.

LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT CANDLES and CHRIST CANDLE—

Rev Kat Mauch

Do not be afraid—I bring good news of great joy!
Light shines on those who walk in darkness.
A child has been born for us, a song given to us.
Let us walk in the light of the Lord.

All Sing Refrain

HYMN OF PREPARATION #225

Sing, My Tongue, the Glorious Battle

Communion

Leader: Like pilgrim shepherds we have gathered tonight. Like children of royalty we have come together to celebrate the birth of true royalty.

People: Our Savior comes to us as a babe, wrapped in swaddling clothes. He lays aside his crown to be among us and share the joy and sorrow of our journey. He passes through the curtain around God's love and, holding it aside, invites us in.

Leader: Oh, the humanity of God, the divinity of God's children.

People: What child is this? What love is this that seeks to share our burdens and leads us on in kindness towards a glory that is gentle and peaceful like a meadow in spring?

Leader: O God, roll away the stone in our hearts and let our spirits soar into that realm where angels laugh, martyrs weep for joy, and God's infinite love dances among the singing throngs of those who have gone before us.

People: That we may know what has been accomplished in this child, that we may see the world as you see it, Lord. Sanctified, cleansed, and sojourning towards a healing so great we are almost afraid to hope in it.

Leader: On the night before his death, Jesus said to his disciples, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer." Now the risen Christ, in perfect joy, graciously invites us to join him at the table, to break and share the bread of life and lift him the cup of salvation.

People: O Lord, as we join at your table on this sacred eve accept us as we are, even in all our imperfections.

Leader: Jesus says, "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly I heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls."

People: What shall we render to the Lord for all God's bounty to us? We shall lift the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord.

All: This Christmastide let our spirits so entwine that we form a wreath of joy, a circle of light from which God's precious and fragile love will shine out into the darkness of this world and into our own hearts. It is in the strong name of Jesus, who came to us as a child that we ask this. Amen.
