Book Club

Tuesday, January 21st 10am
Wednesday, January 29th 7pm

We're excited to announce the launch of our new book club, kicking off this January! Our first read will be "The Rose Code" by Kate Quinn, a captivating historical novel that intertwines mystery, friendship, and the incredible stories of women during World War II. Whether you're an avid reader or looking to dive into something new, this is the perfect opportunity to connect with fellow book lovers. Mark your calendars for our first meeting, and let's embark on this literary journey together! Happy reading!

A Note to Trinity:

Dear Friends,

As you know, Trinity's growth has been slow in the past couple of years. Session and the pastors believe we feel God's call to revitalize, disciple and grow the church for the future. I am asking for your help with this.

First, I am looking for prayer warriors. Someone(s) who are willing to persistently and powerfully pray for revitalization at Trinity, for us to do God's work and reach people. Please consider whether God might be calling you to this special role in the future of our church.

Second, I am looking for 4-5 volunteers who are willing to commit their time and talents to special training in church growth, discipleship, and revitalization. You've heard me say that church grow comes from the members, not the pastor. These individuals would lead the way in changing Trinity to a place of growth and vitality.

Third, please continue to be the generous, loving, talented people you are. Each one of you is deeply loved and appreciated. You, our brothers and sisters, come first before buildings, bills, and budgets. Continue to be the wonderful friends that you are, and know that your many, many contributions to Trinity are seen and felt. If you feel God's call to these roles, please contact Pastor Kate.

With love and hope,
Kate
